As corresponding author, I confirm that:

The manuscript has been submitted solely to the Journal of Higher Education Policy And Leadership Studies and is not published, in press, or under review elsewhere. Further, it is also not available as a published research in a language than English.

The research meets the ethical guidelines, including adherence to the legal requirements of authors' affiliated university and research center, the funding agencies, and the country of research study. Further, it is also the authors' original contribution and necessary permissions are obtained when third-party materials are used.

The research meets the Authors' Duties and Responsibilities of the ethical guidelines of the Journal of Higher Education Policy And Leadership Studies and I am aware that:

Each manuscript goes through initial screening to avoid plagiarism. The Publisher and the Editors-in-Chief do not tolerate any kind of plagiarism. If JHEPALS receive notes (from authors of the published contents with all clarifying documents) to inform plagiarism within their published contents; it will be discussed with the publisher and the editors-in-chief. In case of vagueness, the contents will be re-submitted for plagiarism checks. If the publisher and the editors-in-chief are assured that plagiarism is occurred; the author(s) will be asked to provide necessary explanations accordingly.

The contents are checked against plagiarism as soon as they are submitted to the journal; however, if plagiarism is identified and confirmed; a Retraction Note will be published with reference to both the article and the original source in the earliest new issue of the JHEPALS.

However, in other cases, a Correction Note will be published with the corrected manuscript in the earliest new issue of the JHEPALS. The correction note (clarifying the reasons for such correction) will also appear in the first page of the article.
